

The Noah Warren Cohen Scholarship

The Noah Warren Cohen Scholarship was established in memory of Noah Warren Cohen, a young man with great warmth, enthusiasm for social causes and deep compassion for those less fortunate. A leader of his peers, Noah was admired by his many friends and beloved by his family.

To illustrate his philosophy, in 2010 Noah wrote:

“I believe we are born with a certain amount of intelligence, but without acquiring knowledge we cannot do anything with it. I believe that for the brain to have better recall, the ability to make connections is important. Without knowledge we cannot make these connections. It is like if there were two carpenters the first one is really good at his job and has lots of talent and the second is a regular Joe, but if the first has a butter knife and the second has saws, sanders, drills and everything else, it doesn't matter how inventive the first person is with the butter knife, the second will always do a better job. So, if person A. is extremely intelligent but is illiterate or is missing basic education they will not be able to function as well as person B....This is why everybody should be educated and given the tools they need to do their best.”

The purpose of the Noah Warren Cohen Scholarship is to support programs that help end the cycle of poverty and mirror the passion and qualities that Noah exemplified. Examples of programs considered for funding include, but are not limited to:

- Special training to lift participants from financial dependency to independence.
- Confidence building experiences to enhance participants' abilities to contribute to society.
